One Dollar. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of which this can be truly said and it is an unanswerable argument as to the strength and positive economy of the great medicine. Hood's Sarsaparilla is made of roots, herbs, barks, etc., long and favorably known for their power in purifying the blood.

General Harrison's mail now comes by the wagon load. He has been forced to abandon the idea of giving personal attention to most of his correspondence, and D. S. Alexander, formerly Fifth Auditor of the Treasury, was summoned from Buffalo to take general charge of the letter mail. A large part of the mail consists of newspapers. R. S. McKee, the son-in-law of General Harrison, has taken charge

Great mistakes have been made in the world, by supposing many nervous troubles, were due to bad blood. T. headache, fits, dizziness, sleeplessness, etc., are always due to weakness or irritation of the nerves of the brain; dyspepsia, pain, wind, etc., to weakness of the nerves of the stomach; weak lungs are caused by weakness of the parts; rheumatism, constipation, etc., to weakness of the nerves of the liver or bowels; pains, irregularity, sterility, to derangement of the uterine nerves. For weakness, Dr. Miles' great nerve and brain food cures all other troubles.

Political delegations and Republican Clubs that desire hereafter to have

Mr. Harrison, will have to obtain the consent of the Republican State Committee, of Indiana, through J. S. Harrison, Chairman, before they can get a change to do any handshaking.

The widow of the late Mr. Harmer, of New York, who by marrying became the Dutchess of Marlborough, has been well received in "society" in London. American ladies of wealth and "good looks" have no trouble in "cutting a swell" in England.

The New York World's special from Washington says that Mr. Randall, suffering from cancer of the stomach, and will probably not return to the House, as the disease is far advanced and incurable. A later dispatch contradicts the cancer story.

A gang of train-robbers, eleven in number, boarded a train at Ashtabula, Ohio, on Sunday night, and attempted to rob the passengers. But before the train reached Geneva, they were captured and jailed, without securing any booty.

The Republicans in Congress have been unable to agree among themselves about a Revenue Bill. All they can agree upon is to oppose any Reform measures proposed by the Democrats. They are simply growlers, fault-finders and obstructionists.

The United States Senate on Friday last voted 41 to 20, confirmed the nomination of Melville W. Fuller to be Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. The negative votes were all Republicans, including Senator Sherman of Ohio.

The New York Herald well says that "The protective system is the old hen that hatches out combines and trusts, which squeeze the life out of healthy competition, as the small boy squeezes the juice out of an orange—into his own mouth."

JOHN SHERMAN was down at Marietta last week, "doing" the Centennial, and endeavoring to initiate his brother Tecumseh's performances in kissing the pretty girls. We may here remark that the Senator's wife did not leave Washington.

"NATURAL" IVES, indicted in connection with the management of the C. H. & D. Railroad, who is badly wanted at Cincinnati, is now splurging at the Clifton House, Niagara Falls, Canada, laughing to scorn his "persecutors."

"GATT" TOWNSHIP, the Enquirer's chief Republican writer, is engaged in writing the life of Ben Harrison. He possesses a wonderful faculty of blending fact and fiction, so as to impart interest in any subject he attacks.

The cause of Mr. Carnegie's extreme love for the prohibition tariff can be found lying hidden beneath the income of $5,000 daily or $1,500,000 yearly. Mr. Carnegie's iron business is a paying institution, evidently.

MURRAY for Tippecanoe and Guano, too. Free whisky and free oleomargarine! What a clever lot those Republican politicians are! How adroitly they cater to the amusement of the many.—New York Star.

Passage of the Mills Tariff Bill by a Vote of 162 to 149.

After a long and very exciting debate, lasting for several months, a vote on the Mills Tariff Bill was taken in the House of Representatives.

The bill, which was introduced by Mr. Mills, of Texas, author of the bill, occupied the attention of the House in a speech of one hour, in which he explained, in clear and forcible language, the leading features of the bill, showing that instead of being a free trade measure, as had been falsely charged, it was protective in nearly all its features, and brought about but a slight reduction from the existing law, just sufficient to reduce the tariff tax to the actual necessities of the country. A great many articles of necessity had been placed on the free list, and yet, said Mr. Mills, the committee had been taunted with being protectionists. The Republicans said: "If you want any thing free, take a free drink of whisky." [Applause.] After Mr. Mills concluded his remarks he demanded the previous question, which was seconded and carried, and to the great relief of the country the final vote on the passage of the bill took place, with the result above stated.

There are 325 members of the House and no vacancies. There are 168 Democrats, 153 Republicans and 4 Independents. Of the fourteen who did not vote on Saturday twelve were paired, which accounts for all the members but two, Mr. Moffatt, (Rep.) of Pennsylvania, and Mr. Foran, (Dem.) of Ohio. The latter did not vote. All the other Democratic Congressmen from Ohio voted for the bill, and all the Republicans against it.

Four Democrats voted against the bill, viz: Bliss, Greenman and Merriam, of New York, and Sowden of Pennsylvania.

Three Republicans voted for the bill, viz: Brower, of North Carolina; Fitch, of New York, and Nelson, of Minnesota.

Three men elected to Congress as Independent voters for the bill, viz: Anderson, of Iowa; Hopkins, of Virginia, and Smith, of Wisconsin. One Independent, Nichols, of North Carolina, voted against the bill.

So the affirmative vote was 158 Democrats, three Republicans and three Independents.

The bill will now go to the Senate, which is a Republican body, and the probabilities are that if it passes that branch at all during the present session it will be with radical amendments, which will destroy the wholesome features of the bill.

The Snide Jewelry Fakir Gets

In His Work in Mount

Vernon.

The "Peculiar Methods" by

Which the Suckers Were

Fleeced Out of Over

One Hundred Dollars.

Notwithstanding the fact that the daily papers for a week or more have contained

notices of the operations of a snide jewelry

fakir at different towns in Ohio, the same snide jewelry fakir was engaged in his work at Mount Vernon, Monday morning, and after an hour's work pocketed over one hundred dollars from the rank suckers that gathered

about the open lantern in which he stood,

and which was occupied by a brass

faceted female, whose jaws kept up a continual munching of chewing gum, while she

oiled the crowd on all sides.

After attracting the attention of people about the side walks on Main street by his loud-voiced imitation, he drew up before the Kirk block on the Public Square, and prepared for operations. He resorted to the ancient fad of performing a few slight-of-hand tricks to arrest the attention of the spectators. Then the "graft" commenced.

He insinuated himself into the confidence of the gullible by stating that he was aware that great prejudice existed against parties

and which was caused by a brass

faceted female, whose jaws kept up a continual munching of chewing gum, while she

oiled the crowd on all sides.
